Terms and Condition

Hawkeye Industries Inc. (Hawkeye) makes best efforts to conform to the calculation procedure and methodology in API 2000 7th Edition (2014) (API 2000), however any calculations and device selections performed herein are for informational purposes only, and shall not be used for, in whole or in part, any design or engineering calculation or specification. The responsibility remains with the purchaser / user / owner to ensure and verify that a.) the underlying application information provided is correct; b.) the calculated results are correct and in conformance with API 2000; and, c.) any and all device(s) selected as a result of the calculations are appropriate for the application in the context of the appropriate jurisdictional requirements. In the event of any disparity between the results of this calculator and the API 2000 standard, the results, recommendation and practices in API 2000 shall be used. Hawkeye shall only warrant the accuracy and provenance of the flow rate information for specific Hawkeye designed, manufactured and tested venting devices as per API 2000 section 6.

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL HAWKEYE BE LIABLE TO PURCHASER OR OTHER PERSON FOR ANY INCIDENTAL INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR SIMILAR DAMAGES ("DAMAGES") INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, REWORK, INVESTIGATION, REPAIR OR REPLACEMENT COST, LOSS OF PROFITS, INCREASED COSTS OF OPERATIONS, DIMINUTION IN VALUE OR LOSS OF GOOD WILL ARISING OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE SALE, INSTALLATION OR USE OF THE PRODUCT. THIS LIMITATION OF LIABILITY IS A CONDITION TO THE SALE OF PRODUCT BY HAWKEYE AT THE PRICE.
